

The Constitution of the Kingdom of Sanctimonia

Upon the steps of our national rejuvenation, do we the people stand firm with vigour. Guided by the unconditional love of the One Infinite Creator, the blessings of the Seven, the might of the Dragon, the Monarchy, and the memory of all the Saints and Heroes do establish this Constitution for the Kingdom of Sanctimonia.

Article I

SECTION 1: The Monarch of the Kingdom of Sanctimonia shall be the living embodiment of our unity, our sacred traditions, and the guardian of our sovereignty. The Monarch shall reign for life, unless he or she voluntarily abdicates the throne or is confirmed to have been overthrown.

SECTION 2: The Monarch's advisors shall together be known as the King or Queen's Council. The power of the Monarch is devolved into these lower levels of majesty. Council members are appointed by the Monarch.

SECTION 3: The Monarch shall have the power to raise taxes, create laws, regulate commerce, regulate the armies, protect and create various new temples, establish the national budget and any other legislative power not specified within this document.

SECTION 4: English, Latin, and the Sanctimonian Common Tongue are the official languages of the Realm.

Article II

SECTION 1: The Monarch is Head of State and Head of Government.

SECTION 2: The Monarch shall be Commander-in-Chief of the whole Sanctimonian military.

Article III

SECTION 1: The Kingdom of Sanctimonia has no official organized religion, as dogma takes us away from the TRUTHS.

SECTION 2: The Sanctimonian Judges and Priests shall interpret the laws and other writings in parallel with the Monarch's will.

SECTION 3: A multitude of Sages shall ponder on the biggest questions of the Universe and the nature of the One Infinite Creator and Creation.

SECTION 4: The Sages shall run the numerous temples across and outside of the Land.

We, the men and women, lords and ladies of Sanctimonia, do solemnly and gratefully establish this Constitution to govern our land in unity and harmony, in life as in death, under the One Infinite Creator and the watchful eye of the Dragon Lords. May this Constitution stand as a testament to our shared values and aspirations.
